

Agenda Fort Belknap/EPA Formal Consultation Meeting
Proposed Dewey-Burdock Uranium ISR Site
Plenty Coup Conference Room, Department of Interior Building,
2021 4th Avenue North, Billings, Montana
8:00 am Thursday, March 3, 2016

- I. Introductions
- II. The EPA's role at the proposed Dewey-Burdock uranium in-situ recovery site
 - a. The EPA Region 8 Underground Injection Control Program has received two types of UIC Permit Applications:
 - 1. A Class III Permit Application for the injection of lixiviant to mobilize uranium in ore bodies.
 - 2. A Class V Permit Application for the disposal of ISR waste fluids into deep injection wells.
 - b. The UIC regulatory mission: protect groundwater
 - c. UIC permitting process
- III. Tribal Consultation and the National Historic Preservation Act Section 106 Process
- IV. Tribal Concerns
- V. Next Steps